OLD RIVALS TO VIE FOR ANOTHER TITLE

Champion Norris Williants and G. M. Church to Play for Clay Court Trophy.

DRY COURTS BY BENZINE

PITTSBURG, July 1.—The clay court tennis championship matches were rushed through rapidly to-day as fast as the courts could be dried out with burning benzine. Two of the eight courts were put in fair condition early by this method, and later in the day vo more were ready. The men's singles competition went through to the finish of the semi-finals,

Connie Mack Offers Genuine Surprises

CONNIE MACK has prepared a complete detailed statement of the reasons why he broke up his former champion Athletics last winter. His tribulations when the baseball war affected the spirit of his players and the methods he took to combat the condition form unusually interesting reading. The cases of Bender, Plank, Collins, Coombs and Baker already have provided several surprises to baseball fans. Mack's record of the inside facts contains others of the same kind. Get THE SUN to-morrow and read Connie's own story on the sporting pages.

BAYSHORE, L. L. July 1 .- Although the score was a big one and the Piping Rock team was outplayed by the Islip Freebooters, the polo match to-day on the Islip Polo Club field was a pretty one to watch. The Freebooters won by five were by handicap. The Freebooters experience as coach and official at both track. were Allan Pinkerton, forward; Horace football and basketball. Havemeyer, No. 2; Harry T. Peters, No. 3, and William K. Dick, back. These four have been practicing together a great deal and they understand each other's play thoroughly, with the result that in vesterday's game there was good team work from start to finish. Each man was well mounted and Peters in two periods used his wonderful pony. Pearl Perdon, which never has been beaten in a race.

The Piping Rock team was composed of young players who realized that they had no chance to win but played rather than forfeit. They too were well mounted and the experience they got in the match will be the the composition.
